Human Values

Human values are the virtues that guide us to take into account the human element when we interact with other human beings. Human values are, for example, respect, acceptance, consideration, appreciation, listening, openness, affection, empathy and love towards other human beings.

The various people responsible for inculcating and evolving human values are parents, religious leaders & gurus in daily life and teachers at the institute's level. Human values can assure a happy and harmonious human society. At Arya Institute of Engineering and Technology, we cultivate and inculcate these values in the students (Human Value Subject is the part of RTU Curriculum in the First Year) and staff through teaching and conducting various value-based activities.

Rules of Professional Ethics:

1. Be trustworthy- Trustworthiness is about fulfilling an assigned task and as an extension- not letting down prospects, it is been dependable, and reliable when called upon to deliver a service. In order to earn the trust of your bosses and colleagues, worth and integrity must be proven over time.
2. Always try for excellence: Excellence is a quality of service which is unusually good and so surpasses ordinary standards, it should be made a habit for it to make a good impression on your bosses and colleagues
3. Be Answerable: To be answerability is to stand tall and be counted for what actions you have undertaken; this is the blameworthiness and responsibility for your actions and its consequences- good or bad.
4. Be Polite and Humble: Polite is being friendly, polite and well-mannered with a gracious consideration towards others. It makes social interactions in the workplace run smoothly, avoid conflicts and earn respect. Respect is a positive feeling of esteem or deference for a person or organization.
5. Be honest, open and transparent: Honesty is a facet of ethical character that implies positive and virtuous attributes such as truthfulness, straightforwardness of conduct, loyalty, fairness, sincerity, openness in communication and generally operating in a way for others to see what actions are being performed.
6. Always be Ethical: Ethical behavior is acting within certain moral codes in accordance with the generally accepted code of conduct or rules. It is always safe for an employee to “play by the rules”. This is always the best policy and in instances the rule book is inadequate, acting with a clear moral conscience is the right way to go.

7. Be respectful of confidentiality: Over the course of your career, information will be passed on to you in confidence – either from the organization or from colleagues and it is important to be true to such confidences
8. Always be honorable and act with integrity: Honorable action is behaving in a way that depicts “dignity of soul, nobility, and a scorn of meanness” which is derived from virtuous conduct and personal integrity.
9. Be knowledgeable and improve continually: Knowledge is the ability of an individual to do a job properly, it is a combination of acquaintance, skills and behavior used to improve performance.
